Mr. David Archbold
Managing Director
Information and Communication Technology Authority
P.O. Box 2502GT
3rd Floor Alissta Towers
Grand Cayman

Dear Mr. Archbold,

We acknowledge receipt of your letter of 26 April 2007 confirming C&W's wrongful redaction of non-confidential material and C&W's subsequent acceptance of this in its letter of 3 May 2007.

We understand that the Authority has decided against the review process requested by Digicel, which causes us significant concern given what has now been exposed. However, we will leave it to the Authority to determine at a later stage in the process, the extent to which draft outputs from the FLLRIC model might be affected by any abuse of process.

While we note that the Authority has declined to initiate the review process sought by Digicel, interested parties will wish to contest the views contained in C&W's revised response. Although Digicel's pursuit of the disclosure of this information by C&W necessarily implicated some of Digicel's underlying objections to the substantive assertions by C&W, our arguments were first and foremost aimed at procuring their inclusion on the record, rather than considering or contradicting their substance.

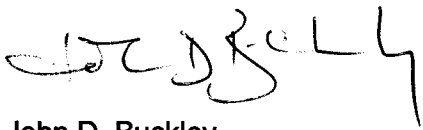

We expect that the Authority is concerned not to have further slippage in the FLLRIC process, but again note that C&W has sought an extension to 8 June 2007 to respond to all of the latest round or interrogatories. Accordingly, we would propose submitting to the Authority by the same date our substantive response to the positions taken by C&W in its revised response.

The Authority may itself wish to more generally invite interested parties to make such submissions and to set a date for that purpose, with which Digicel will comply.

We look forward to receiving your positive decision with regards to this request.

Yours sincerely,

John D. Buckley
Chief Executive Officer
