Information & Communications Technology Authority Issues Public Consultative Proceedings on Dispute Resolution for the KY Domain

The Information and Communications Technology Authority (ICTA) is responsible for the regulation and licensing of Telecommunications, Broadcasting, and all forms of radio which includes ship, aircraft, mobile, amateur radio as well as the administration of the .ky domain.

It is the Authority's intention to introduce a Domain Name Dispute Resolution Policy and Rules for the .ky Internet Domain. In exercising its responsibilities it is the intention of the ICTA to obtain input, information and feedback from the general public and relevant stakeholders.

The ICTA has placed on the public record two matters in relation to which it is seeking submissions. These are the Domain Dispute Resolution Policy and Domain Dispute Resolution Rules. The ICTA requests public input on both matters.

The Domain Dispute Resolution Policy and Rules are based upon the Uniform Dispute Resolution Policy and Rules adopted by ICANN.
